

Gary Chaw to Bring “Crazy For Live 2nd Encore Live in Malaysia 2024” Tour to Resorts World Genting coming June 2024

Genting Highlands, 4 March 2024 - Following the resounding success of his previous tours in Malaysia in 2022 and 2023, the multi-award-winning Mandapop sensation Gary Chaw is poised to make a triumphant return with the second encore performance of his acclaimed “Crazy For Live” tour. The highly anticipated concert is slated to take the stage of Arena of Stars at Resorts World Genting on 1 June 2024, 6pm.

“Crazy For Live” perfectly encapsulates Gary Chaw's passionate spirit and his interpretation of the power of music over the years. In the first concert, Gary presented a unique blend of elements, selecting Cantonese pop classics that had deeply influenced his upbringing and infusing them with innovative expressions, breathing new life into these classics, allowing the audience to relive shared memories and emotional experiences through music. Last year's encore performance featured an upgraded stage and predominantly featured Gary's own chart-topping songs, evoking cherished memories shared by the audience. Both shows were a huge success, with the venue packed to the brim.

Gary, hailed as the sole Malaysian male singer to have won the esteemed Golden Melody Award, is renowned for his commanding vocal prowess. In recent years, Gary Chaw's musical influence and popularity have soared to new heights. Tickets for his concerts in Sydney, Melbourne, and even Macau sold out rapidly, underscoring his global recognition and prowess in the music industry. The forthcoming concert in Atlantic City in April has further heightened anticipation among fans worldwide.

For his upcoming 2nd encore show, Gary will be joined by eight exceptional musicians on stage, promising a more spectacular performance than ever before. In addition to revamped song arrangements, state-of-the-art sound equipment and stage lighting will be deployed to deliver a fresh visual and auditory experience for audiences.
