Tranquil, peaceful and serene, time slows down immensely at this temple. It was here at this very site that in 1966, the late Tan Sri Lim Goh Tong got an inspiration from the Chin Swee Deity to proceed with the development of the Resort. Intricate carvings decorate the temple walls, lined with many statues of various Buddhist deities. A pagoda stands tall, offering visitors a bird's eye view of the mountains. Other areas of particular interests at the Temple would be the Nine-Colour Dragon Wall of Luck and the Chambers of Hell. If you would like to do a spot of praying, take a walk down to the cave temple itself, where friendly temple assistants are more than happy to guide you through the process. It is also an ideal place to enjoy a nice vegetarian meal, available at their restaurant.

Escape to the

East Coast

Situated along one of the longest coastlines in Malaysia is Awana Kijal Golf, Beach & Spa Resort. It's a rare destination where everyone can have their own little private seaside enclave, away from the hustle and bustle of the commercial and industrial hotspots. The beach is immaculate and unblemished, the water crystalline, the culture and heritage still evident in every rustic village that surrounds its environs. Largely unsullied by the excesses of modernity, there is a calmness and serenity about the people and the resort. Always graceful, and ever obliging, you will be grateful for the sense of freedom this holiday destination endows.

Day 1

10am

Arrival

Step into the big and spacious lobby of Awana Kijal, where wood and space reign supreme in this traditional Malay architecture-inspired resort. Leave your bags at the counter, as check-in only starts at 3PM. Note that you will need a car to get around Kijal, so don't forget to rent one from the car rental service at the resort, or from the Kerteh and Kuantan airports!

11.30am

Kampung Tour

To soak in the nuances of Terengganu's culture and heritage, embark on the Kampung Tour. A resort shuttle will bring you to the surrounding villages, where you will get to admire the hidden gems that Terengganu proffers - from the art of mengkuang weaving at the Cherating Woven Craft Centre, to the unique wax-resist dyeing technique of batik-printing at Noor Arfa Batik.

One of the many forms of batik printing.

The intricate craft of mengkuang weaving.

Experience a sense of freedom at the resort.

The marvellous Malay-inspired architecture of the lobby.

1.00pm

Hai Peng Kopitiam

After that, drive through Cukai - a major town in the Kemaman district. Make it a point to stop over at the infamous Hai Peng Kopitiam for lunch. It is a fascinating place to be, as Hai Peng Kopitiam is almost always crowded with multi-ethnic customers wolfing down plates upon plates of Hai Peng Roti Bakar and Nasi Dagang. Don't forget to sample their very own brand of coffee!

It's all in a hard day's work for the fishermen at Kuala Kemaman.

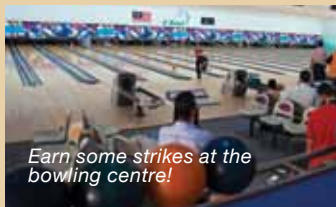

3.00pm

Mesra Mall

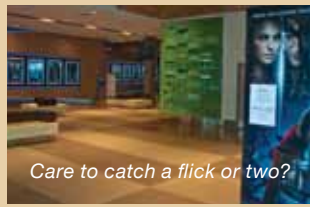

Just a short 10-minute drive away from Awana Kijal is Mesra Mall, where eager locals come to enjoy some Big City trappings. Currently the biggest mall on the east coast of Malaysia, it is well appointed with a cinema, a supermarket, a departmental store, as well as the many familiar shoes, cosmetics, fashion and accessory brand name stores.

Locals hanging out at Mesra Mall.

Earn some strikes at the bowling centre!

Care to catch a flick or two?

Enjoy a reinvigorating Javanese massage at the spa.

4.30pm

Free & Easy at the Resort

To reinvigorate your frazzled body, head back to the resort for a good massage at Taman Sari Royal Heritage Spa. The spa prides itself in hiring only professional and qualified masseurs from Java, and will be able to suggest the best traditional Javanese treatments to cater for your personal needs.

Alternatively, sporting activities right at your doorstep at Awana Kijal's 7.6km beachfront should make a vigorous end to the last few hours of daylight. Boats, jet skis and yachts are available for the seafaring sorts, but if you really want to stay on land, take a ride on one of the ATVs and hit throttle as you careen up and over the many undulating dunes along the shoreline!

The resort also comes with a 22,000sf swimming pool that is perfect for a long and luxurious wade. Cool off in the waters, or lie back on the sundeck chairs with a good book as company.

Take a thrilling ride on a jet ski!

A beachside haven for all.

The 22,000sf swimming pool

Enjoy cooking your own dinner in a pot!

6.30pm

Dinner at Waterfall Café

Have dinner at Awana's Waterfall Café, where a steamboat dinner by the swimming pool should sate you for the night. Pick from a wide selection of meat, seafood and vegetables, and then cook them in the boiling chicken and tom yum broths, fondue-style.

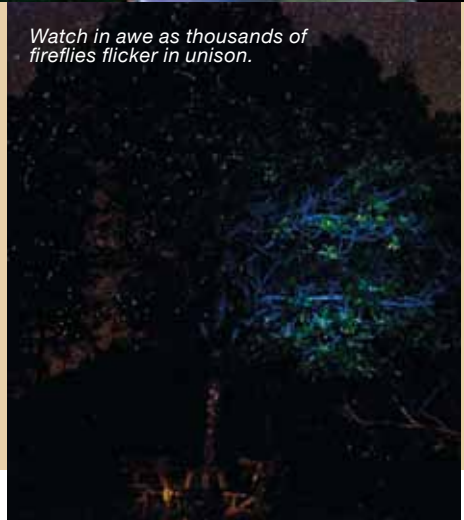

8.00pm

Firefly Watching

The highlight of the day, if not the entire trip, would be a slow and languorous boat ride into the Yak Yah River, just half an hour away from the resort. An experienced guide will bring you to Teluk VIP, where the mangroves grow dense and tiny flickers of lights from thousands upon thousands of fireflies light up the unremitting darkness of the night.

Watch in awe as thousands of fireflies flicker in unison.

Day 2

8.30am

Breakfast at Restoran Kampong

Kick-start your morning with a delicious buffet breakfast at Restoran Kampong, located at the resort. The food comes with a few local touches, like the Malaysian standard-bearer of morning drinks, Teh Tarik, and the creamy fragrance of Nasi Dagang, a Terengganu specialty.

9.30am

Depart to Marang Jetty

Once you're well fed, take a 90-minute shuttle ride from the resort to the jetty in Marang. (Be sure to make your bookings at the front counter before the trip itself!) A 15-minute boat ride from the jetty will bring you to Pulau Kapas, a tiny yet pristine island just over 2km long and 1km at its widest point.

11.15am

Pulau Kapas

One of the must-sees of the East Coast, Pulau Kapas is a beautiful island made of tantalisingly soft, near-white sand beaches lapped by ultra clear waters. Besides the usual activities of snorkeling, sunbathing and deep-sea diving, there is also a trek cutting a swathe through the jungle, where you can meet quite a few monkeys and the occasional lizard. Climb the high-beam lookout light tower, and you'll be rewarded with a spectacular panorama of the inland-facing half of the island.

Sail away to the beautiful Pulau Kapas!

A pure snorkeling sanctuary for all.

12.00pm

Lunch on Pulau Kapas

There are only a few eating spots available at the small island, so it's advisable to stock up on rations!

Mingle with the locals at the Pasar Malam.

6.00pm

Pasar Malam

Everyday except Friday, there is a Pasar Malam in one of the towns near Awana Kijal - the closest being the one in Kerteh, which occurs only on Tuesday nights. It's where you can mingle with the locals and taste an unbelievable range of foods, from Roti Akok to Ayam Percik. If you're lucky, you may even be able to catch the "medicine man" putting on a show to sell his goods!

8.00pm

Dinner at Tong Juan Restaurant

Back down south in Cukai, where Hai Peng is the lunchtime go-to place, at night Tong Juan Restaurant takes prominence. A multi-ethnic clientele flocks to this restaurant to sample its signature Stuffed Crab and other seafoods, even on weekdays!

The infamous Stuffed Crab!

9.30pm

City of Lights

About 30 minutes from the resort is what locals call the City of Lights, also known as the PETRONAS Petroleum Industry Complex, a massive oil and gas refinery plant consisting of 41 installations. Watch in awe as the entire horizon lights up with flames from vats, spikes, pipes, tanks and towers while you zoom down the highway. It is truly unlike anything else you'll come across in Terengganu.

Tee off by the beach!

Beachside Golfing

The marquee attraction at Awana Kijal is its par-72 18-hole championship golf course, spectacularly set beside the beach. Do keep an eye out for the signature hole number 14, which sits atop what look like a perfectly manicured island of green surrounded by sand that overlooks the South China Sea.

Other Highlights

Turtle Sanctuary

A visit to the Turtle Sanctuary at Pantai Chendor would reveal to you the fragile existence of one of nature's most intriguing sea creatures. This sanctuary offers sea turtles protection by ensuring the survival of endangered species such as the Leatherback Turtle, who would occasionally come to this beach to lay its eggs. Both informative and experiential, it's also where you can learn more about the centre's hatchery programme and how these little hatchlings are released back into the sea.

Get up close and personal with the turtles!

Kota Mahsuri

Even deeper into the heartland is the Kota Mahsuri cultural centre and mausoleum. They are built in memory of Mahsuri, a folk heroine who endured torture 200 years ago after being falsely accused of adultery. Her story dominates the Langkawi as her curse on seven generations of bad luck is widely believed locally.

A painting of the legendary Mahsuri.

The breathtaking coastline of Pantai Cenang.

5.30pm

Sunset at Pantai Cenang

No visit to Langkawi is ever complete without taking in the glorious length of the Pantai Cenang coastline. A beautiful place to enjoy the sun and the sea, this beach is where you can enjoy hair-rising rides on the banana boat, skim the seas on jet skis or glide high above on a parasail! A longer stay on the beach will reward you with a beautiful view of the sunset.

Zest, located at The Boardwalk, prides itself on its sizzling specialties while Villa Rossi serves up a delectable Italian and Continental cuisine. Mangrove Tour

A 45-minute drive across the island to the Kilim River jetty will get you started on a slow boat ride along Sungai Kilim, also known as the Mangrove Tour. Where the freshest catch lands on your plate.

12.30pm

Lunch with the Freshest Catch

Situated at the Kilim estuary is the floating fish farm. Here, you'll find the Hole In The Wall restaurant, where many tourists come to enjoy fresh seafood for lunch. Fact: This restaurant is named after a little opening in the limestone hills where it was built!

3.00pm

Seven Wells Waterfall

After lunch, drive northwest to the Seven Wells Waterfall. An uphill hike of 638 steps will bring you to the most spectacular waterfall on the island, which offers you scenic views of Buray Bay and Pantai Kok from the top. For something less tiring, you can always soak in the naturally formed pools at the lower falls.

Breathtaking natural waterfalls.
