

Resorts World Genting Flower Market Returns with an Abundance of Festive Flavours

Genting Highlands, 26 December 2025 – In the lead-up to Chinese New Year, Resorts World Genting invites guests to immerse themselves in the spirit of reunion and celebration with its Flower Market. Taking place from 15 December 2025 to 16 February 2026 at Lot T2B, (next to 7-Eleven) on Level 3, SkyAvenue Mall, the Flower Market is open daily from 10am to 10pm, allowing guests to soak in the festive atmosphere while stocking up on an extensive range of festive delicacies and essentials.

Specially curated by Flavours of Genting and Genting Central Kitchen, this year's Flower Market features more than 500 products spanning festive confectionaries, cookies, ready-to-eat favourites, hampers, decorative items and more. Designed as a one-stop destination for Chinese New Year shopping, the market brings together tradition, convenience and culinary craftsmanship under one roof.

Guests can look forward to a wide variety of well-loved Flavours of Genting confectionaries, including classic pineapple tarts, durian biscuits, ginger biscuits, green peas biscuits, milk cookies, peanut biscuits and salted egg biscuit, alongside a colourful assortment of Chinese New Year cookies perfect for gifting and sharing. Complementing these are the resort's signature sambal, sauces and pastes, ranging from fried shrimp and anchovy sambal to chili garlic, black pepper and other versatile condiments that elevate home-cooked festive dishes.

The Flower Market also showcases an impressive selection of frozen and vacuum-packed offerings from Genting Central Kitchen, including premium fish, prawns, poultry, lamb, scallops, squid, sausages, braised mushrooms and more. For added convenience during the busy festive season, guests can choose from packed dim sum favourites such as prawn dumplings, Shanghai dumplings, abalone lo mai kai, pau and tong yuan, making it easy to recreate a restaurant-quality feast at home.

A dedicated Muslim-friendly section ensures inclusive festive shopping, offering a broad range of halal-certified confectioneries, sauces, frozen items, snacks and dim sum selections, thoughtfully curated for all guests to celebrate with confidence.

For those seeking traditional indulgences, the non-halal section presents classic Chinese New Year specialties, including claypot pun choy, premium braised dishes, pork dim sum and other celebratory favourites that are often the highlight of reunion meals.

Adding to the festive experience are ready-to-eat treats such as egg tarts, baked chicken siew pau, curry puffs, chicken pies and brownies, perfect for a quick bite while exploring the market. Shoppers can also browse festive hampers, dried seafood, bird's nest, ginseng, yee sang, snacks and decorative items to complete their Chinese New Year preparations.

With its lively ambience and thoughtfully curated offerings, Resorts World Genting's Flower Market captures the warmth, abundance and joy of the Chinese New Year. Whether shopping for reunion dinner essentials, festive gifts or seasonal treats, guests are invited to make a stop at SkyAvenue and celebrate the season in true Genting style.

About Genting Malaysia

Genting Malaysia is one of the leading leisure and hospitality corporations in the world. Listed on Bursa Malaysia with approximately RM10 billion in market capitalisation, Genting Malaysia owns and operates major resort properties including Resorts World Genting (RWG) in Malaysia, Resorts World New York City, as well as Resorts World Catskills and Resorts World Hudson Valley (the latter two are 49%-owned via an associate company), in the United States of America (US), Resorts World Bimini in the Bahamas, Resorts World Birmingham and over 30 casinos in the United Kingdom (UK), and Crockfords Cairo in Egypt. Genting Malaysia also owns and operates two seaside resorts in Malaysia, namely Resorts World Kijal in Terengganu and Resorts World Langkawi on Langkawi Island.

Located 6,000ft above sea level, RWG is Malaysia's premier hilltop integrated resort. The resort features wide-ranging leisure and entertainment facilities including 10,500 rooms across seven distinct hotels, gaming, theme park and amusement attractions, dining and retail outlets, as well as international shows and business convention facilities. Nestled amidst the mid-hills, Resorts World Awana complements this extensive premium experience with its natural greenery, mountainous golf course, trekking trails, and proximity to key attractions. Moreover, Genting Highlands Premium Outlets (a joint venture between Genting Plantations Berhad and Simon Property Group), further complements RWG's diverse offerings, solidifying its status as a leading leisure and entertainment hub in the region. As the birthplace of the Genting Group, RWG will host an exciting line-up of promotional events and activities to commemorate the Genting Group's 60th anniversary Diamond Jubilee, offering unforgettable experiences for all.

Genting Malaysia is a member of the Genting Group, one of Asia's leading and best-managed multinational companies. The Genting Group is led by Tan Sri Lim Kok Thay, a visionary entrepreneur who has successfully established the Resorts World brand as a leader in the leisure and hospitality sector in Malaysia, Singapore, the US, the Bahamas and the UK. Tan Sri Lim Kok Thay also has significant investments in other industries globally including oil palm plantations, property development, power generation, oil and gas, cruise and biotechnology.
